A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and also gone West in search of health," writes Harry Kitter, of No. 1645 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over five years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would be so stiff and sore that I was hardly able to move about, and often unable to dress myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines, but they had no effect whatever on me, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials; always fresh and reliable

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

sare caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

THE RUSSIAN REVOLT.

A dispatch from Theodosia, Crimea, dated yesterday, says that the inhabitants are leaving the town in compliance with the orders of the authorities, who fear that the mutineers of the Kniaz Potemkin will carry out their threat to open fire on Theodosia. Only troops and officials remain.

The Black Sea fleet has gone to Theodosia, according to advices received by the admiralty late yesterday afternoon.

Dispatches received from the governor of Simferopol, who is executing the decree of martial law at Theodosia, say that about half of the Kniaz Potemkin's crew desire to surrender, but they are prevented from doing so by the revolutionists.

There were only six companies of troops at Theodosia Wednesday, but reinforcements of infantry and artillery have been dispatched from Sebastopol.

It transpires that the torpedo boat which accompanied the Kniaz Potemkin which towed all the way from Kustenji to Theodosisa, was not sunk as was supposed.

An official report from General Kahanoff, the military governor of Odessa, declares that there has been the widest exaggeration regarding the number of casualties resulting from the rioting at Odessa. He gives the following figures:

"Of the mob, 49 were killed and 74 were wounded; of the police and troops, one man was killed and 20 were wounded."

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the whole Crimean peninsula is in revolt, and anarchy reigns in the mountains of the Caucasus from Batoum to Baku. Only brief details are available on account of the rigid censorship established by Admiral Chouckinin, commander of the Black Sea fleet.

Even the foreign embassies having consuls at Theodosia, Crimea, have not received any word. At Theodosia the workmen are backing the rebels. The crews of several ships in the harbor have joined the rebellion and the well to do class of the population fled in panic.

The guns of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin were trained on the city for hours, presumably because the authorities could not or would not furnish the ship with coal.

Only six hours away on the other side of the peninsula Admiral Chouknin's fleet, which includes six warships, not counting Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron, lies at anchor under the menace of the guns of the fortress. Chouknin evidently is afraid to test the loyalty of his crews by setting them the task of capturing the rebel ship.

Telegrams from the Caucasus say the news of the rebellion on board the Kniaz Potemkin made an electric impression and was the signal for a general movement, with which troops and police are absolutely powerless to cope. Railroad traffic in all directions has ceased, and the people are fleeing on horseback and in all kinds of vehicles over the mountain roads and trails. Consternation prevails in official circles.

A correspondent who visited the Kniaz Potemkin in company with the Mayor of Theodosia, found the battleship commanded by an elected committee of seven headed by "Ensign and Quartermaster" Alexieff, a quasi-commissioned rank in the Russian navy. Everything was in order, and good discipline prevailed. All the guns were loaded and it was said that the mutineers had a full complement of ammunition. The crew consisted of 755 men, and there were 15 more in the torpedo boat No. 256. No officers were seen, but it was rumored that there were several ensigns among the crew held prisoners and costumed as sailors.

Attacked by Members of Black Hand.

Although Pietro Caputo, who runs a hotel on the outskirts of Mamaroneck, near White Plains, N. Y., was nearly stabbed to death by members of the Black Hand Society, who demanded money from him, yet he managed to crawl to the place where he had a double-barrel shotgun hidden and fired point-blank at his assailants, killing one instantly and wounding two others.

For several months Caputo had received letters signed by the Black Hand Society demanding $100 under a penalty of being slashed to death on July 5 if he failed to pay the amount. Caputo paid no attention to the letters. One of the letters read like this:

"If you don't give us $100 we will kill you the first chance we get. We mean business."

Three alleged members of the Black Hand Society walked into his barroom early yesterday morning and asked for the money. Caputo started to serve them with drinks, when one of the gang, known only as "Big Pete," leaned over the bar and stabbed him in the neck and then slashed him half a dozen times across the face. Though almost blinded by blood which flowed from his wounds, he managed to crawl to the place where he had his gun and fired at his assailants. Big Pete staggered out the front door and dropped dead. The entire top of his head had been blown away by the heavy charge of shot. Then Caputo reloaded his gun and fired twice more at the other men as they started to run. Both were wounded, but they managed to escape, leaving a trail of blood behind them. A posse of Italian men and women was formed and they scouted the surrounding woods for the two men but they could not find them.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes. "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store; price 50c. guaranteed.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Three Good and Just Reasons.

There are three reasons why mothers prefer One Minute Cough Cure: First, It is absolutely harmless; Second, It tastes good—children love it; Third, It cures Coughs, Croup and Whooping Cough when other remedies fail. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

OPERATION AVOIDED
EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It

When a physician tells a woman suffering with ovarian or womb trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for ovarian or womb operations.

Miss Margret Merkley

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of ovarian and womb trouble cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margret Merkley of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had ovarian trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Ovarian and womb troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing down pains, leucorrhœa, don't neglect yourself: try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1905.

THERE WAS a joint discussion yesterday at King George Court House between Senator Martin and Governor Montague. The latter led off by repeating most of the speech he made in this city several weeks ago, which having been heard or read so long since ceases to interest people. He recapitulated his observations concerning the dead and the living, dwelt long upon the careers of Matthew Quay, Simon Cameron and others who have paid the debt of nature, and then turned his guns upon Senator Smoot and the issues raised by the appearance of that individual in public life. No one has yet been able to see to what the histories of these men have to do with Virginia. Toward the close the Governor again arraigned Senator Martin upon the grave charges of being comparatively unknown in the political field until selected as Senator and of not being a victim of cacoethes loquendi. He talked long and laboriously upon the present primary plan of electing United States Senators. Senator Martin's response is justly regarded as the effort of his life, and his replies to all the charges made by the Governor were simply unanswerable. For instance he said, while favoring the primary plan, it was a well-known fact that it was conceived for the purpose of sidetracking him. The Senator in answer to the Governor's insinuation that he, previous to his Senatorial career, had never appeared on the stump, said he had been at the disposal of the democratic committee since he was twenty-one years old, and had never failed to answer a call to duty. He appealed to the democratic committee to corroborate his assertion. The Senator landed a titanic blow when he called attention to the fact that the Governor seemed considerably exercised at what was going on in the United States Senate, charging corruptions here and there and arraigning this and that one, but allowed a beam to remain in his own eye concerning educational matters which are causing no little comment in Virginia. The Senator referred to the school register scandal and the fact that Gov. Montague is a member of the State Board of Education. The scenes at King George Court House yesterday strengthen the observations made several months ago to the effect that if Governor Montague continues on the stump Mr. Martin will have a walk-over on election day, as many people, undecided as to whom they will support, are liable to turn away from the Governor after once beholding his attempts to erect a platform as flimsy as a house of cards and to exhaust his quiver by discharging arrows at grave yards.

DURING the past few days the elements have seemingly warred against man. Several portions of the country have been deluged with rain, causing the loss of many thousands of dollars in property, while in Texas twenty-six persons have been killed by a cyclone. Lightning has also been active, and here and there people have suffered electrocution from the celestial batteries. In this city and vicinity, while there have been heavy downpours of rain, we have been spared from any serious damage by flood, lightning or Æolus. Primitive men, ignorant of the operations of nature, imagined their deities were always at war with them, especially when angry clouds overspread the sky, and they supposed the chief end of man was to be ever offering propitiatory sacrifices. They failed to see the silver lining in clouds or to realize the beauties of the rainbow—sunbeams and rain drops—emblematic of tears and smiles. While the black clouds are charged with fiery bolts they also carry the cooling winds and welcome rains which refresh the earth as well as man and beast.

IT HAS been estimated from police statistics that more than 5,000 persons annually disappear in the United States and are never heard from again. The actual figures, based on a conservative calculation, are even more alarming than those given. In fact, the reports of the police departments of the larger cities show that in the 12 months just passed 16,008 of the persons who disappeared during the year were never reported as found, although there is reason to believe that a large percentage reappear in one way or another, but are never reported. The tragedies of real life hidden within these peculiar cases, if they could but be brought to light, would rival many of the novels penned by the world's greatest writers. No subject that can be imagined has such weird fascination as that of the thousands and thousands who have gone down this grand canyon of oblivion. In Alexandria during the past few years several unknown persons have been struck by trains and killed. Nothing was found upon them by which they could be identified, and their remains have been deposited in the potters' field.

ELIHU ROOT'S appointment to the Secretaryship of State will make him, next to the President, the most conspicuous member of the administration, and places him in the category of probable candidates for the presidency in the next national campaign. Mr. Roosevelt has long regarded Mr. Root as the proper man to continue his own policies. In his efforts to persuade Mr. Root to take the place made vacant by the death of Mr. Hay he doubtless promised him the benefit of such influence as he can properly exert to obtain for him the nomination. Other presidential booms dwindle into insignificance compared with the political prospects now possessed by the new Secretary of State. Vice President Fairbanks and Senator Foraker seem out of the running. Secretary Shaw, of the Treasury Department, will be the candidate of the standpatters and the opponents of Roosevelt's policies. Mr. Root will stand for Roosevelt ism and all that comprehends. Apparently, it is to be Root against the field, with the odds in favor of Root.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., July 7.

The view is generally held here that the acceptance by Elihu Root of the Secretaryship of State means that he will be the administration's candidate for President in 1908. It is believed that unless he had assurances of the President's support in this matter that he would never have consented to leave his profitable private practice to re-enter the Cabinet. It was for the purpose of resuming his practice that he resigned the Secretaryship of War, and only the most potent considerations could have induced him again to take up a public career. The news of the formal announcement of Mr. Root's appointment was received this morning in Washington with gratification. Numerous telegrams of congratulation were sent him during the day by government officials and personal friends.

The new library building attached to the Naval War College at Newport, R. I., is now being seriously talked of as a suitable place for the meetings of the peace plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan. The building is a handsome structure only recently completed and not yet occupied. Following all precedent and custom in similar circumstances the United States will treat the peace plenipotentiaries of both Japan and Russia as its guests during their stay in this this country. While each delegation will naturally pay its own hotel bills and personal expenses it will devolve upon the United States to provide a suitable place for them in which to hold their deliberations.

The State Department has received a report from Mr. Norman Hitchison, United States Charge d'Affaires at Caracas, Venezula, enclosing a copy of a congressional agreement by which the title of "Restorer of Venezuela" is conferred on President Castro. In the resolution passed by the Congress of Venezuel conferring this title on President Castro, it is stated that he has "realized a true work of national restoration, a work of peace well-performed over an extinct fire of discord, or praisworthy policy by continual personal vigor by tolerance and assimilation, etc., etc." In a second report received by the State Department from Mr. Hutchison he says that on June 23d President Castro issued a degree practically making the salt industry of Venezuela a government monopoly.

Baron Rosen, the new Russian ambassador, recently selected as one of the peace plenipotentaries, is here to arrange with Count Cassini for the presentation to the President of his credentials as ambassador. Count Cassini will leave Washington Saturday en route to his new post at Madrid.

The dead body of a white man was found this morning at a hotel up Seventh street. Being a stranger to the hotel his name has not been learned. It is supposed that he blew out the gas.

Death Warrant Withdrawn.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 7.—Governor Pennypacker today withdrew the death warrant of Joseph Gibson, who was to have been hanged in Philadelphia on July 20, pending application to the Board of Pardons for commutation to life imprisonment. The board will not meet until September.

Resignation Requested.

Philadelphia, July 7.—Director of Public Safety Potter this morning requested the resignation of Chief Pierre, of the Department of City Property, and it was promptly tendered.

News of the Day.

Germany has forbidden Deputy Jaures, a leading socialist of France, to speak in Berlin next Sunday.

Fifty-five officers of high rank in the navy have availed themselves of the right given them under a recent decision of Attorney General Moody in construing the personnel act and have gone on the retired list with rank one grade higher than that held by them in active service. Because of these retirements it will not be necessary for any officers of the navy to be compulsorily retired this year.

A terrible storm prevailed in the Georges Creek mining region, near Cumberland, Md., yesterday evening, extending from Piedmont to Clarysville. It is said to have been the most violent in twenty years. Hundreds of gardens were ruined. Streets became rivers, while small streams were torrents. The Buxton mine, of the Davis Coal and Coke Company, and a mine at Barton were flooded. The damage will reach many thousands of dollars.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Robert W. Broadnax, of Lynchburg, died at Bedford City yesterday, aged 65 years.

Mrs. Eliza Forster, wife of James Forster, died Wednesday at her home near Wadesville, Clarke county, aged sixty years.

George W. Gordon, aged eighty-one, a native of Frederick county, is dead at his home near Berryville, Clarke county, where he resided many years.

The United States government probably will spend $250,000 in the equipment of the new weather experiment station at Mount Weather, near Bluemont.

Judge Mann, of Nottaway county, candidate for nomination for governor, spoke at Leesburg yesterday afternoon to a large crowd. This was Judge Mann's first address in Loudoun county.

Joseph W. Labell, who shot his wife Annie five times, in Richmond, Wednesday, and then fired a bullet into his own body, died yesterday. The woman will recover, all of her wounds being superficial.

Miss Virginia Taylor Aldridge, daughter of the late Mrs. Catherine Nossett, died Thursday afternoon of paralysis, at the Mary Washington Hospital, Fredericksburg, aged 65 years. Miss Aldridge had been the faithful matron of the hospital since its establishment.

Joseph S. Sinclair died at his home at Antioch, Prince William county, on Monday, in the 80th year of his age. He was a farmer and was the son of the late George Sinclair, of Fauquier county, a soldier in the war of 1812. During the civil war his house was in the midst of almost continuous military operations.

Warrants charging illegal voting in the recent primary were issued in Richmond yesterday against L. B. Culberson, a clerk at the Third precinct of Monroe ward, and Jackson Wise, an officer at the same precinct. This is a further step in the investigation of primary frauds instigated by William L. Royal in behalf of parties yet undisclosed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Singleton died at Scotia, the country home of her nephew, Joseph A. Jeffries, in Rappahannock county, on the 4th instant, in her eighty-eight year. She was the widow of Mr. Albert Rust Singleton, a once-prominent merchant, and a daughter of the late James Hinson. Her death took place in the same room that she occupied when first a bride, 66 years ago.

Isaac Leterman died in Charottesville Wednesday night. Had he lived until August next Mr. Leterman would have celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday. A native of Wurtemburg, Germany, Mr. Leterman came to Virginia in 1850 and located at Appotomax Courthouse. A few years later he removed to Charlottesville and engaged in the merchantile business with his brother, the S. late Leterman. He remained in active business pursuits until about 25 years ago, when he was forced to retire on account of failing health. The last quarter of a century he spent with relatives in Salem, Richmond, Lynchburg and Charlottesville. Two children survive—Mrs. M. Kaufman, of Charlottesville, and Mrs. L. Lazarus, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. Smith Collapsed.

Mrs. Estelle Townsend Smith, on trial in the Hustings Court of Manchester on the charge of whipping her little son Ralph to death, utterly collapsed yesterday when an attempt was made to put her on the stand on her own behalf.

With her face hidden by a long black veil which she has worn constantly during her trial, the woman fell back in her chair, crying and shrieking. Her condition was such that her counsel declined to take the risk of questioning her then, but reserved the right to do so later. The woman's husband, Sheppard K. Smith, to whom she was married in Brooklyn in January, 1899, it being a runaway match, made a good witness for the defense. He said that the boy had erred since the age of four years, was rapidly becoming an idiot and both he and his wife punished him severely in order to cure his habits. He accounted for the bruises and scars all over the boy's body by the assertion that the boy bruised easily and the marks remained long.

Riotous Refugees.

Seattle, Wash., July 7.—Russian refugees being taken from Shanghai to Odessa on the Seattle steamship Garonne became so riotous between the China port and Singapore, that Captain Robert Lowe, master of the ship, was forced to place the ringleaders in irons. Upon arriving at Singapore, Captain Lowe appealed to the Russian consul to have the more turbulent of his passengers taken from the ship. His request was refused, and he promptly purchased enough rifles and ammunition to arm his crew. Then he clapped more of the disturbers in irons and subduing the rest by a show of arms, continued his voyage. Reaching Odessa, the Garonne, found the town in a state of siege and accordingly went to the Theodosia where she arrived in safety, according to a dispatch just received from Capt. Lowe to Frank Watterson, the owner of the Garonne.

MONTAGUE AND MARTIN.

Gov. Montague and Senator Martin, candidates for the U. S. Senate, met at King George Courthouse for the first time in this campaign yesterday.

The great interest in the meeting attracted a large crowd, not only from King George, but from the adjoining counties.

As soon as Governor Montague arrived on the grounds he issued a challenge to Senator Martin for a joint debate. His proposition was: Montague to open in one hour, Martin to follow in one hour and a half, Montague to close in one half hour. This was rejected by Senator Martin. Governor Montague then reversed the proposition—Martin to open in one hour, Montague to follow in one hour and a half and Martin to close in one-half hour. This the Senator also refused. Senator Martin proposed the following: Montague to open in one hour, Martin to follow in one hour, Montague to have one-half hour for rejoinder, Martin one-half hour to close. Notes were exchanged between the two condidates, but Senator Martin held to his proposition, which was finally accepted by Governor Montague under protest.

The courthouse was crowded. Judge Charles H. Ashton, county democratic chairman, introduced Gov. Montague, who was greeted with applause. He stated that he accepted the terms of the debate under protest, claiming that they were unfair to him and gave his opponent an advantage. He discussed Senator Martin's official record and charged the Senator with opposing the primary which the people had adopted. The Governor discussed good roads, education and other questions of the day and spoke of his own record as Governor and in other positions he has filled.

When Senator Martin arose to speak he was given an ovation. He defended his own official record, and in discussing the record of the Governor referred to irregularities in connection with the school register matter in the Department of Public Instruction in Richmond "within a stone's throw of the Governor's office," in the matter of the school register and McGilvray's connection with it. The Senator made a fine impression, and surprised those who had never heard him, as it has been charged that he was not a speaker. He demonstrated his ability to hold his own in any company. Senator Martin made a fine impression and added to his strength.

Each speaker was deeply stirred and was in deadly earnest, but neither lost his temper, and there was nothing apparent which savored of discourtesy. There was but little of the strictly personal in the nature of attack and counter thrusts. The discussion, the most striking portions, was devoted to attacks upon the record each has made in public life. Decidedly the feature of the day was the reference made by Senator Martin to the recent trouble in which Judge Crump, president of the Corporation Commission, became involved, and the school register scandal, in which Assistant Secretary McGilvray, of the State Board of Education, was involved. It was not known that Senator Martin would allude to these matters, and when he did so, he was listened to with closest attention.

Senator Martin created applause by asking why, if the primary was to be an issue in the campaign, William A. Jones, who had begun the fight for it, was not now in the saddle for candidate for the Senate, instead of Governor Montague.

Incidentally, he mentioned that a large majority of the delegates to the Roanoke convention from the Governor's county of Pittsylvania were opposed to the primary plan. He concluded by saying he had done his best to serve the people of King George and hoped he would receive their support.

The sentiment in King George is largely in favor of Senator Martin.

Lieut. Gov. Joseph E. Willard, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, was introduced after the debate closed. He was warmly received and his strong, practical speech was listened to with close atention.

Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, the State democratic chairman and candidate for lieutenant governor, made a brief address.

Co-Operative Education Commission.

The Co-operative Education Commission of Virginia, which was organized over a year ago for the purpose of unifying all the educational agencies in the State and of directing their combined energies to the cardinal work of improving the common schools, especially in the country districts, held a midsummer conference at the University of Virginia yesterday.

In the absence of the president, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, who is in Germany, Capt. Charles E. Vawter, of the Miller Manual Labor School, of Albemarle, presided. The opening address was made by Dr. Joseph W. Southall, superintendent of public instruction. Captain Vawter then addressd the convention on the aims and work of the Co-operative Education Commission, giving some account of the good accomplished by the May mass-meetings held throughout the State.

At the afternoon session the chief address was by Prof. Ormond Stone, of the University of Virginia, who spoke of some practical ways of helping school officials.

The final session was held at 8:30 o'clock, in connection with the initial session of the Virginia State Teachers' Association. The opening remarks were made by Superintendent R. C. Stearnes, of Salem, president of the State Teachers' Association. Addresses were delivered by President Alderman, of the University of Virginia, and Dr. William S. Burrell, of Washington and Lee University.

Dr. Robert Frazer, of Warrenton, field agent and acting secretary of the commission, announced that arrangements are now making for a great educational convention to be held at Lynchburg about the middle of November.

The Moroccan Question.

Paris, July 7.—It is officially announced that at the meeting of the council of ministers held this morning, Premier Rouvier told the members of the Cabinet that he has every reason to hope that a complete understanding will be reached with Germany in regard to the Moroccan question in the near future.

President Roosevelt and party arrived here at Asbury Park, N. J., at 1:55 this afternoon. They were met by a committee appointed by the Educational convention and proceeded to Ocean Grove, where the President will deliver an address.

Today's Telegraphic News

Another Mutiny.

London, July 7.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg says it is reported there that the crew of the battleship Catherine the Great has joined the mutineers.

Another Central News dispatch from Theodosia, Crimea says that the Kniaz Potemkin stopped a British steamer and compelled her to follow the battleship. A quantity of coal was also taken from the steamer.

According to this dispatch the Potemkin left Theodosia last night.

Sevastopol, July 7.—Rear Admiral Chuckwin's manoeuvering squadron has left this port bound for Theodosia, where the Kniaz Potemkim was reported to be yesterday. The Georgei Pobiedonesets whose crew joined the Potemkin in the mutiny at Odessa, but later surrender to the authorities was left at Sevastopol.

Theodosia, Crimea, July 7.—Reports sent to London to the effect that the Kniaz Potemkin bombarded the town are untrue. Troops guard the town and are keeping order. When the battleship left the harbor she was followed by a collier from which she took coal.

Vienna, July 7.—A dispatch from Bucharest, Roumania, says that the torpedo boat Strenitzelny is known to have spoken the Kniaz Potemkin. This report comes from Kustenji, where the Potemkin put in after leaving Odessa. In well-informed circles in the latter town the statement is made that the captain of the torpedo boat offered a full pardon in the name of the Czar to the mutineers if they would take the vessel to Sevastopol undamaged. The offer was refused by the mutineers.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—The whereabouts of the Kniaz Potemkin are unknown to the naval authorities here. The mutinous battleship left Theodosia just before the fleet arrived and her destination has not been learned. The warships did not put into Theodosia; it is presumed they are in pursuit of the mutineers. It is supposed that ensign and Quartermaster Alexoff, who is supposed to be in command of the Potemkin, was advised of the fleet's coming and so left Theodosia.

Reports as to which direction the Potemkin took on leaving Theodosia do not agree. One rumor says that she sailed in the direction of Livadia and this has given rise to the report that it is the intention of the crew to bombard the summer residence of the Czar.

Another rumor says that the Potemkin when last seen was headed southeast, as if bound for the Caucasus littoral. Still another report says that the battleship put into Tuahse and has been captured by soldiers.

Theodosia, Crimea, July 7.—The torpedo boat Smolvy, which has been searching for several day for the mutinous battleship Kniaz Potemkin, arrived here today and after coaling at once put to sea again to continue the pursuit. The torpedo boat is manned by twenty officers who are dressed as sailors. The vessel is under orders to either force the Potemkin to surrender or to blow her up.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—A dispatch from Odessa says that twelve members of the crew of the Kniaz Potemkiu escaped from the battleship to the shore.

Execution of Murderers.

Owensboro, Ky., July 7.—Robert Mathley was hanged in the jail yard here today. He had attempted to commit suicide during the night by opening an artery of his left hand with the nails of his right. The crime for which Mathley was executed was committed June 26, 1904. He killed Miss Emma Watkins. At the same time he killed James Gregson, but he was not tried for the murder of the latter. He killed Miss Watkins for refusing to marry him.

Salisbury, Md., July 7.—At sunrise this morning Henry J. Handy, colored, murderer of his wife Celia, paid the penalty on the gallows here in full view of a large crowd. Handy marched to the gallows unconcerned and apparently indifferent to his fate. Handy deliberately planned to kill his wife about a year ago, and was in a frenzy of excitement three days before he accomplished his scheme.

Baltimore, July 7.—For the murder of his mistress, Lula Marcell, January 1, 1904, John Burch, colored, was hanged in the county jail yard at 9:48 this morning. The noose was not properly tied, and for fully ten minutes Burch writhed and struggled in death agony. Burch claimed that the woman had been consorting with other men and that he drew his pistol merely to frighten her, whereupon she threw herself into his arms with the result that the pistol was accidentally discharged.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 7.—George Holland was hanged this morning in the execution room of the county jail for the murder of an unknown white man, near Pembroke, November 15, 1903. He walked calmly to the gallows, protesting his innocence to the last. Holland and eight other negroes killed and horribly mutilated and robbed their victim, who was sleeping by a camp fire. Six are serving life sentences in the penitentiary, and one is in jail under a life sentence, his case having been appealed. Another who turned states evidence is out on bond.

Tangled Bank Affairs.

Richmond, Ind., July 7.—J. A. Shickenhier, of Richmond, appointed for the Commercial Bank of Hagerstown, began his duties this morning. He estimates that it will take a year to straighten up the badly tangled affairs. Apparently no system was followed in the bank's business. Hagerstown people are bewildered by the failure. Many are entirely ruined, their savings of a life time being swept away. Practically everybody in that community had trusted Cashier Bowman who escaped his financial chaos through suicide. Government bonds an deposit worth $120,000 or more are missing.

Warm Wave.

Rome, July 7.—The terrific heat which has prevailed in parts of Italy, has been responsible for several glacial slips during the last few days. Near Domo d'Oscola, a town on Simplon route, near the Swiss frontier, enormous ice boulders have been loosened and have crashed down into the valleys. The melting of the ice and snow has caused great lakes to form in some of the valleys.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Remains of John Paul Jones.

Cherbourg, July 7.—The party of American naval officers and sailors and special officials comprising the mission sent to France to receive the remains of John Paul Jones, arrived here this morning at eight o'clock from Paris, where the ceremonies in connection with the transfer of the body to the American representatives were held yesterday. The party was received officially by the aide of the maritime prefect, with much ceremony. The special train on which the remains were carried was switched to a wharf of the Compagnie Transatlantique. The coffin was removed from its special car and placed in a tent, resting on a catafalque. It is watched by a special guard of honor of French soldiers, and American sailors. The French and American officers take turns in commanding this guard of honor, alternately relieving each other every two hours. The remains will be kept here until tomorrow noon, when the casket will be taken aboard the cruiser Brooklyn, Rear Admiral Sigsbee's flagship, to be conveyed back to America.

Cherbourg, July 7.—One of the sailors from the protected cruiser Chattanooga, by the name of Rodgers, who was sent here with the fleet to act as the escort for John Paul Jones' body, died in a hospital in the town today. It has been decided to give the sailor a public funeral. Delegations from the army and navy will be sent to attend the ceremony.

Anti-Semitic Outbreak.

Berlin, July 7.—Prominent Jews here have received news of an anti-semitic outbreak which has occurred at Biatystok, a town in Russian Poland, in the government of Grodno. The attack on the Jews was the result of a bomb outrage which was unjustly blamed upon them.

A bomb was thrown in one of the busiest streets of the town killing five policemen and two women. At the same moment that the infernal machine exploded volleys of shots were poured into the police and troops from roofs, windows and balconies overlooking the street.

The authorities attributed the outbreak to Jewish agitators, and ordered the troops to storm the Ghetto. The soldiers were turned loose in the Jewish quarter, without the slightest restraint and killed fifty and wounded over 100 Jews who were innocent of any participation in the revolt.

According to the information received here open revolution exists against the government of Bessarabia, Russia. The town of Orjejeff has been fired by the revolutionists. A massacre of Jews has occurred in the town of Berezowka.

Welcomed by Sultan.

Fez, Morocco, July 7.—Gerald A. Lowther, the British envoy to Morocco, accompanied by his staff, was received by the Sultan this morning. The welcome extended to the British representative by the Moroccan ruler was very cordial and in marked distinction to the reception accorded to Mr. Lowther during former audiences with the Sultan, when the latter manifested the greatest indifference toward the British envoy. It is reported that the prestige of Count von Tattenbach-Askold, the German special envoy, who has been in high favor with the Sultan since the Kaiser took his sensational stand in favor of a conference of the powers on Moroccan affairs is on the wane.

Incident Settled.

Berlin, July 7.—The Lokal Anzeiger says that the Turko-American incident growing out of the arrest of A. A. Garginlo, first dragoman of the American Embassy, in Constantinople, has been settled. Following the protest, made by the American Ambassador, the Porte sent the Master of Court Ceremonies, Galib Pasha, to convey to the Ambassador his personal apologies for the mistake, which had been made and the unintentional insult to a member of the embassy staff.

Proposition to Dethrone Czar.

Berlin, July 7.—The Vossische Zeitung says that at a conference of representatives of all the reform revolutionary groups of Russia, held at Moscow, the proposal was made to issue a proclamation announcing the dethronement of the Czar and the establishment of a democratic government, with Moscow as the capital of the country. The proposition was seriously considered and the delegates all promised their support to a reform government of moderate views.

Decision in Favor of Powers.

Maysville, Ky., July 7.—Caleb Powers under sentence of death for alleged complicity in the death of William Goebel, gained a victory here today. Judge Cockran in the United States District Court, handed down a decision holding that the federal court has jurisdiction in the Powers case. Powers' attorneys have made a hard fight to have the case removed from the State courts.

Fatal Fright.

Somerville, N. J., July 7.—George Schenck, 20 years old, died here from injuries sustained in falling from a cherry tree. He had climbed the cherry tree and was eating the fruit when the owner of the tree suddenly appeared. This frightened Schenck so badly that he had a fit and fell out of the tree. He struck on a rail fence, injuring his head. He died after being taken home.

Illness of the Sultan.

Constantinople, July 7.—The illness of the Sultan continues to cause considerable alarm. His nervous breakdown is said to be complete and he is unable to attend to any business. An eminent neurologist has been summoned from Vienna to treat him. Prince Reshad Effendi, the heir apparent, is also very ill.

Mr. Root Accepts.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 7.—Elihu Root has accepted the portfolio of State. Announcement of this fact was made at the executive offices this morning in the following statement:

"Elihu Root has accepted the tender by the President of the Secretaryship of State. He will take the oath of office in a couple of weeks, but it will necessarily be some little time before he closes his business up. He will not go to Washington permanently until some time in September."

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 7.—A message from ex-Secretary of War Elihu Root was received at the executive offices this morning and Secretary Loeb announced that as soon as he could communicate with the President it would be made public. President Roosevelt left for Ocean Grove, N. J., at 11 a. m., aboard a special train. Long Island City was reached at 11:50 and there a boat was in waiting to convey the party to Jersey City, where the President took the train for his destination.

The President will deliver an address before the National Educational Association at Ocean Grove and will leave for his return trip to Oyster Bay at 3:30 p. m.

President Roosevelt's party consisted of Secretary Loeb, Stenographer Latta, Secret Service Operatives Tyree and Sloan, three press representatives and two messengers from the White House force. At Jersey City United States Senators John F. Dryden and John Kean joined the President's party.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—Under instructions from Oyster Bay the commission of Hon. Elihu Root as Secretary of State was made out at the State Department today and will be forwarded to him in New York. It is understood that the new secretary will come to Washington to take the oath of office, although it is not at all essential that he should do so. As a matter of fact, he could take the oath before any notary public. If he takes the oath here it will be administered to him by Judge Penfield, solicitor of the State Department. Immediately afterwards he will hold a reception at which all the heads of the divisions and bureaus of the department will be introduced to him. It is not expected that he will remain in Washington more than a day or two after taking the oath. While he will be consulted on all important matters of international concern he will not, it is understood, come here to take direct charge of his new office until some time in September. In the meantime Assistant Secretary of State Adee will run things. Mr. Adee has been taking his usual summer vacation in the south of France, but is expected here tomorrow. He will at once take charge, relieving Assistant Secretary Peirce, who has been acting secretary since the departure of Mr. Loomis. The officials of the State Department will give Mr. Root a hearty welcome. All of them have a high opinion of the ability and statesmanship of the new secretary.

Sunken French Submarine.

Paris, July 7.—The latest advices received by M. Thomson, the Minister of Marine, in regard to the submarine boat Farfadet which sank yesterday at the entrance to the port of Sidi, Abdallah, Tunis, are to the effect that the efforts made to raise the vessel and save the crew, have so far proved unsuccessful. A number of tugs and divers are still at work in the hope of releasing the entombed men. Some of the men who went down with the submarine are still alive, apparently as they again answered the signals of the divers this morning by rapping inside the boat.

A private dispatch received from Biserta, Tunis, says that the sailors who are entombed in the Farfadet have ceased to respond to the signals of the divers on the outside of the vessel, and it is feared that all the men have perished. The third and fourth attempts to raise the submerged vessel have failed as the ropes slipped from their places before the boat could be raised.

Woman Escapes From Hospital.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 7.—A flood of gossip has been loosened by the escape from the Hudson River State Hospital late Saturday evening of Mrs. Jane L. Wilson, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of former Congressman Phillip Burrill Low, of New York, a wealthy ship chandler. Mrs. Wilson was once a resident in Easton, Pa. The manner of her escape started a rumor that she had outside aid, and the fact that young Walter Langdon, assistant superintendent of the hospital, disappeared at the same time has aroused comment. Mrs. Wilson had been under treatment for the cocaine habit, and had improved to such an extent that Dr. Harris, of the hospital staff, said that they were ready to surrender her to her friends at any time. An investigation disclosed that she got out of the hospital Saturday night by the removal of a nut from the guard at her window. She crawled through the window. From that time no trace of her has been found.

American Guests Entertained.

Paris, July 7.—President Loubet entertained fifty guests at an official luncheon at the Elysee palace today, in honor of the American representatives who came here to receive the body of John Paul Jones, Mrs. Robert McCormick, wife of Ambassador McCormick, occupied the seat at President Loubet's right, and Madame Fallieres, wife of the president of the French Senate sat at the president's left. Ambassor McCormick sat at the right of Madame Loubet, and Francis B. Loomis, junior ambassador, occupied the seat at her left. Among the other guests were Rear Admiral Sigsbee and the officers of his staff, the secretaries of the American embassy, Premier Rouvier, M. Berteaux, Minister of War; M. Thomson, Minister of Marine; M. Doumer, President of the Chamber of Deputies, Generals Brugere and Dessirier and Admiral Fournier.

Filed Petition in Bankruptcy.

London, July 7.—Mrs. James Brown Potter today filed her own petition in bankruptcy and a receiver was appointed by the court to take charge of her affairs. The failure of her attempt to break into the ranks of actor-managers is thus formally announced. Mrs. Potter took a lease on the Savoy Theatre in London last August and presented several plays during the season on an elaborate scale. London did not take kindly to her efforts, however, and she met with reverses almost from the start.

School Board.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present Messrs. Thompson, Stabler, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Jones, Carne, Boothe, Carter and Smith. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. L. H. Thompson presided.

Mr Stabler reported that the committee on schoolhouses and furniture had examined the furniture in the room of the principal of Lee School and found it to be in bad condition and that new desks could be purchased at about $3.00 each. The committee recommended that the room be furnished with new desks and reported that those now in the room could be repaired and utilized in another room. Mr. Stabler also reported that the roofs of Peabody, Washington and the old Academy buildings needed repairs.

On motion of Dr. Smith the committee was instructed to purchase a sufficient number of new desks for the principal's room in Peabody building and the committee was also instructed to have the necessary repairs made to the several buildings during the summer recess.

Several bills for supplies, &c., were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Carne, from a special committee appointed at the last meeting to consider the subject of the anonymous letter sent to the Superintendent, reported that no information concerning the matter had been obtained and the report was received.

Dr. Jones offered the following:

Resolved, That the public school session for the city of Alexandria, Va., shall be nine months for the year 1905-6.

Resolved, That the sum of $12,550 be appropriated for the salaries of the white teachers and $4,950 be appropriated for the salaries of the colored teachers for the same term.

Dr. Jones stated that under this plan the white teachers would receive a ten months' salary for a nine months' session and the colored teachers would receive a nine months' salary for a nine months' session, provided no change was made in the present salary list.

Dr. Smith favored a nine months' session and said that several of the teachers had told him that a nine months' session was long enough, though they wanted a ten months' salary.

After some debate as to the effect the passage of the resolution might have upon the rules of the board now in force, and the Superintendent being absent, on motion of Mr. Carne the resolution was referred to the finance committee by a vote of ayes, 8; noes, 2—Dr. Jones and Mr. Carter.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man, arrested by Officers Patterson and Arrington charged with carrying concealed weapons, was dismissed.

Jennie Payne, colored, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Preston Smith, Annie Smith and Pinkney Burnett, all colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Bell charged with vagrancy, were fined $5 each.

S. Walden, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with peddling without a license, was dismissed.

A white man, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was dismissed.

Sophia Tolson, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

A white man, arrested by the same officers charged with forging an order, was dismissed, the charge having been withdrawn.

Bessie Keys, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Escaped Drowning.

Mr. Nathan Wollberg, a well-known traveling salesman, who resides in this city, had a thrilling experience near Accotink, Fairfax county, yesterday morning. Mr. Wollberg was driving through the country in a one-horse vehicle. Upon reaching Accotink creek he attempted to ford it notwithstanding its swollen condition. When he arrived in midstream, however, the horse was struck in the side by a floating log and instantly became unmanageable. Mr. Wollberg made every effort to guide the animal to the opposite shore, but the current was too swift and both he and the team were swept down stream. People on shore soon realized the seriousness of the situation and ropes were secured and thrown to the rescue of the occupant of the vehicle. Mr. Wollberg was pulled ashore in safety, and later the horse and vehicle were landed.

Departure of the Dogali.

The Italian cruiser Dogali, which has been anchored in the Potomac, near Washington Barracks, for nearly a week left this morning for New York, passing Alexandria at 9:40 o'clock. A new commander will arrive at New York from Italy to take charge of the ship. Capt. Chevalier Ronca, the present commander, will return via passenger steamer to Italy to assume a command suitable to his rank of captain of a battleship, to which grade he is to be promoted. The Dogali lay off Alexandria for about a week upon her arrival in the Potomac, during which time all of her officers and men came ashore at different times. They were courteous and produced a favorable impression among all who met them.

Transit Company Chartered.

The Corporation Commission yesterday chartered the Washington and Virginia Transit Company of Glencarlyn, Alexandria county. M. E. Church, of Falls Church, is president; W. C. Pennwitt, of Glencarlyn, first vice president; M. C. Mitchell of Glencarlyn, second vice president, John B. Henderson, jr., of Ballston, secretary and Charles A. Kolb, of Barcroft, treasurer. The capital stock is $100,000 to $400,000.

Amelia Egan, daughter of the late William Egan died in Washington yesterday. Her remains will be brought to this city tomorrow morning for interment.

U. S. Jurors.

The following are the lists of the grand and petit jurors drawn for the summer term of the U. S. Court which opens in this city on Monday next:

GRAND JURY.

J. B. Starnell, C. J. W. Summers, Wm. Livingston, James N. Turner, Frank S. Harper, W. C. Williams, L. R. Brooking, J. F. Gorlick, G. G. Galleher, J. R. Evans, R. W. Merchant, J. K. Linkins, R. C. Redd, George R. Payne, Lewis F. Gouldin, Bladen T. Taylor, Edward Hammel, E. R. Hicks, F. W. Walcott, R. K. Ashton, J. S. Covington, J. S. Yowell and E. I. Peed.

PETTIT JURY.

William Reardon, jr., R. F. Lee, John Harlow, Horace Ramey, Edward J. Smith, Jas. R. Rawlings, F. H. Revere, J. S. Wallace, Allan Donnan, Henry K. Franklin, William Hunter, John R. Eustace, C. Burgess, R. T. Clarke, H. F. Lynn, J. B. Hale, Henry Hawley, Paul Tuppence, Edward C. Dean, B. Upton, W. H. Eggborn, T. L Allison, W. G. Buckner and Louis Lukens.

Steamboat Hands Scarce.

The steamboat companies are having trouble in obtaining men as deckhands on the boats running on the Potomac. Although good wages are paid and the men are fed on the steamers, they will ship, make a trip and then demand to be paid for the time they have made, leaving the steamboat in the lurch. The steamers often leave port with hardly men enough to handle freight, and the hands often leave the boat down the river, especially if they come from lower Maryland or Virginia and have friends in the country. The advisability of doing away with colored hands altogether and employing foreigners on the steamers is being seriously considered.

Installation.

At a regular meeting of Samarian Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, A. O. O. F., Wednesday evening, July 5th, the following officers were installed by the D. D. P., Mrs. W. E. Hinken: N. G., Mrs. E. E. Padgett; V. G., Mrs. Ernest Lyles; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. E Hinken; Financial Secretary, Mr. W. L Martin; Treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Watkins; Chaplain, Miss Sadie Watkins; Warden, Mrs. Mamie Bucher; Conductor, Mrs. James Hughes; I. G., Mrs. Annie Rhyner; O. G., Mrs. Ellen Burton, R. S. N. G., Mrs. J. A. Sprouse L. S. N. G., Mrs. G. H. Hinken; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Herman Friedlander; L. S. V. G., Mrs. I. Griener.

A Correction.

The statement in Wednesday's Gazette to the effect that a baby had fallen from the steamer Pocahontas on her way up the river from Colonial Beach Tuesday night turns out to have been incorrect, although parties living in this city who were on the steamer stated upon their arrival here that a two-year-old child was missing shortly after the boat left the beach, and it was supposed that it had fallen overboard and drowned. The frantic mother, they averred, was searching for the missing child. She doubtless found it later, but failed to make this fact known to those to whom she at first expressed her apprehensions.

The B. & O. Transfer Service.

It has been rumored several times lately that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company would abandon the transfer of freight trains by ferry from Sheppard's landing and would send all trains south over the new railway bridge, but that rumor seems to be unfounded, and if the railroad company has any such intention the change will not be made at once. As an evidence of this, it is stated that the pier at Sheppard's is to be overhauled and repaired. The material for the work is now on the pier.

The New Slip.

Work on the new ferry slip at the foot of King street is proceeding rapidly. The old ferry house, half of which was on a line with the roadway of the street, has been removed north, and the work of filling in the site will be prosecuted vigorously. The steam barge Lilly and Howard has arrived with a load of oak piling, which is to be used in the construction of the new slips. The Norfolk steamer brought up this morning a quantity of iron material to be used at the same place.

Lower King Street Wharf.

An item in this column a day or two ago stated that the parties having charge of the wharf property on the south side of King street, opposite the old ferry slip, wanted $8,500 for the same. The property offered at this figure embraces all the ground from the west side of the Strand 73 feet south from King with the old wharf at the foot of King street, the docks on either side of the wharf and all the riparian rights to the 73 feet river frontage.

Wants a Reinstatement.

Earnest L. Howard, editor of the Herndon Observer, Herndon, has asked President Roosevelt to reinstate him in the Pension Office, from which he resigned last September to become a candidate for Congress on the republican ticket from the Eighth Virginia district, against John F. Rixey, the successful democratic candidate. Mr. Howard has applied for the superintendency of one of the divisions of the Pension Office. His former position paid him $1,400 per annum.

Teachers' Examinations.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere, Superintendent of Schools Kemper will from July 18 to to 21 hold an examination for school teachers for this city. The Superintendent requests all the teachers now employed by the City School Board to meet him at Peabody building tomorrow (Saturday) night, at 8 o'clock.

Postponement.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the lawn party of the Children of the American Revolution for the benefit of Pohick Church will be postponed from this evening to Monday evening, July 10.

Auction Sale Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will sell in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall at noon tomorrow a tenement and lot of ground on the east side of Alfred street, near Wolfe.

Miss Nellie L. Robey entertained a few of her young friends at her home, 315 south Columbus street, last night, as she will leave early Saturday morning to spend the remainder of the summer in Smithport, Pa., with her aunt, Mrs. Enos Carr.

Mr. E. S. Plummer, formerly of this city but now of St. Louis, was in the city today on a short visit.

Mr. DeWilton Aitcheson has returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

Electric Railroad to Aldie.

Another company, with ex-U. S. Senator Henderson at its head, has been organized for the purpose of building an electric road from Washington to Aldie. That a line from Washington, via Fairfax, to the Blue Ridge mountains would prove profitable to the promoters and beneficial to the territory through which it would pass does not admit of a doubt. It would penetrate a territory of surpassing richness and fertility, the development of which has scarcely begun, but which would be wonderfully stimulated by such an enterprise. Such a road will be built after awhile, but we fear there is nothing in the present outlook to justify excessive confidence in its immediate construction.—[Fairfax Herald.

Baseball.

The following is the standing of the teams in the Alexandria Baseball League:

	W	L	Pct
Old Dominion	1	0	1000
Invincible	1	0	1000
Virginia	1	1	500
Potomac	1	1	500

There will be a game of baseball this afternoon at 5:30 on the old fair grounds between the Potomacs and the Invincibles, and tomorrow evening between the Virginias and the Old Dominions.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The water mains were flushed today.

Mrs. Mary Robinson died at her home on Oronoco street, between Pitt and Royal streets, yesterday, aged 56 years.

Although the mercury registered only 87° today, the humidity in the atmosphere was abnormal and made the heat appear much more intense.

The pump at the corner of Franklin and Washington streets has been out of order for some time much to the inconvenience of many people who live in that neighborhood.

The steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington line has returned from the shipyard at Newport News, where she has been given a general overhauling and has been put in order for her summer work.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Harvey B. Johnson and Zoe Virginia Boyd, both of Front Royal, and Robert L. Johnson and Irene V. Lee, both of Alexandria, the two latter colored.

The humid weather still holds sway, and the discomfiture is relieved but little by the heavy rains of the past few days. There was a heavy downpour of rain about 5 o'clock this morning, which flooded some of the streets.

The old steamer Belle Haven was brought to the front in Baltimore during Wednesday's storm. The steamer broke from her fastenings and swept down on the Block street drawbridge and fouled with a three-masted schooner in her race down the swollen falls, carrying away part of the schooner's head gear.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five minutes I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy it for sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Billousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley, N. D., says: "Two bottles of these Famous Little Pills cured me of chronic constipation.' Good for either children or adults. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner of Queen and Patrick streets.

New Subway Opened.

The first public subway car went through the tunnel under the Harlem river yesterday afternoon, when Frank Hedley, general manager of the Interborough Company, showed a party of newspaper men and photographers the completed new Lenox avenue division of the Interborough Company's subway. The complete Lenox avenue division will be officially opened next Monday. A noticeable feature of the trip was the coolness of the tunnel—a contrast to the close air in the other subway now in use. "It's a most simple matter," said Contractor McBean, when he undertook the work. "I'm going to build my tunnel above ground, and then sink it in the river. That's about the size of it. I will build most of it in the good daylight, and know what I'm doing."

Oppose Bible in Schools.

The committee on sectarianism in Cleveland, Ohio, which has for its purpose the investigation of the extent of Bible reading in public schools, submitted its report yesterday. After giving the reason for combating such reading, it emphatically recommends that concerted action should be taken by rabbis and congregations to remove the Bible from the public schools.

After a general discussion, the report was concurred in and an appeal will be made to the American Jews to enable rabbis to appeal to the highest courts if necessary to determine the constitutionality of Bible reading in the public schools system.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE ON FRANKLIN STREET EXTENDED IN FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree entered in the chancery suit between John A. Seaton, complainant, and Benjamin Franklin et als., defendants, depending in the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Va., the undersigned commissioners, appointed by the court to make sale of the real estate mentioned in said suit, will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal street entrance to the Market Building, in the said City of Alexandria, at 12 o'clock noon, on SATURDAY,
the fifteenth day of July, 1905,
A CERTAIN LOT OF GROUND, which belonged to the Franklin estate and which in the above mentioned suit was allotted to Phoebe Cupid's heirs, situated on Franklin street extended near the corporate limits of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, in Fairfax county, designated and known as lot number 2 in a plat and survey made by J. Owens Berr & Co., and filed in said suit, fronting on Franklin street extended 42.5 feet by 197.5 feet. Said plat may be seen in the office of John M. Johnson, 111 south Fairfax street, Alexandria, Virginia.

Terms of Sale: Ten per centum of the purchase money to be paid in cash and the residue thereof in equal installments at six, twelve and eighteen months, bearing interest, the deferred payments to be evidenced by the notes of the purchaser and to be secured by the retention of the title until the purchase money is fully paid and satisfied. Conveyance at the cost of the purchasers.
JOHN M. JOHNSON,
K. KEMPER,
Commissioners of Sale.

Origin of the Four Post Bedstead.

In mediaeval times, when life was very insecure, it was usual for people to sleep on a bed which was surrounded by sides of boards with strong posts at the four corners. These sides contained sliding doors, which could be fastened inside. When men retired to rest they took a weapon with them. If attacked in the night they were aroused by the noise made by the crashing in of their wooden defenses and were able to defend themselves. When the law became strong enough to protect human life the sides of the bedstead were gradually dispensed with, but the four posts remained. The boxlike bedstead still survives in the rural parts of Scotland and is almost necessary where the earthen floors and imperfect ceilings cause much damp. Emily Bronte in "Wuthering Heights" describes one of these bedsteads in the old mansion as forming a "little closet." Mr. Lockwood, who had to sleep in it, says, "I slid back the panel sides, got in with my light, pulled them together again and felt secure."

Nerve of a Wounded Soldier.

One day an army surgeon was dressing the wound of a soldier who had been shot in the neck near the carotid artery. Suddenly the blood vessel gave way, and just as quickly the surgeon thrust his finger into the hole to stop the flow.

"Doctor," said the soldier, "what does that mean?"

"It means death," said the surgeon calmly.

"How long can I live?" asked the soldier, whose mind was perfectly clear.

"Until I remove my finger," said the doctor.

The soldier asked for pen and paper, wrote his will and an affectionate letter to his wife, and when the last thing was done said quietly:

"Let it go."

The surgeon withdrew his finger, the blood rushed out, and in a few moments the man was dead.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Own Way.

"Do you ever have your own way?" asked the cynical near relative.

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton. "Sometimes I have my own way, but not without consulting Henrietta very carefully before I make up my mind."

Getting Up Courage.

Knicker—Jones and his wife are singing "The Marseillaise," Bocker—Yes; they are bracing up to discharge the cook.—Harper's Bazar.

He Was.

Servant Maid (in breathless excitement)—Professor, there's a burglar in the dining room! Professor (deeply absorbed, without looking up)—Tell him I'm engaged.

Made a Difference.

Young Actor—How do you like my Hamlet? Old Stager—Oh, it was your Hamlet, was it? I thought I did not recognize it as Shakespeare's.

His Business.

"What is Johnson's business?"

"I think he is a bookkeeper; at least he never brought back the one he borrowed from me last summer."

Buy It Now.

Now is the time to buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is certain to be needed sooner or later and when that time comes you will need it badly—you will need it quickly. Buy it now. It may save life. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guranteed at 50c and $1.00 by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist. Try them today.

Indigestion Cured.

There is no case of indigestion, Dyspepsia or Stomach Trouble that will not yield to the digestive and strengthening influence of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy takes the strain off the stomach by digesting what you eat and allowing it to rest until it grows strong again. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure affords quick and permanent relief from Indigestion and all stomach troubles, builds up the system and so purifies that disease can not attack and gain a foothold as when in a weakened condition. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

The Only Way to Cure.

To cure a cold when you have no cough—to cure a cough when you have no cold—to cure yourself when you have both—take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. The new idea, the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It contains no opiates and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Pleasant to the taste and equally good for child or adult. Remember the name, "Kennedy's," and see that the red clover blossom and the honey bee is on the bottle. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Take no other. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner of Queen and Patrick street.
